IATUL Mission Statement

The International Association of Scientific and Technological University Libraries (IATUL) was founded in Düsseldorf, Germany in May 1955. IATUL is a voluntary international non-governmental organisation of a group of libraries, represented by their library directors or senior managers.

IATUL is an excellent example of the development of an effective informal international network between libraries of similar type, with a common high level of professional expertise and offering a similar range of services to their users.

IATUL Aims & Objectives

- Establishing a worldwide library network
- Encouraging international co-operation
- Providing a forum where library directors and senior managers can meet and exchange ideas
- Offering an opportunity to develop collaborative approaches to solving common problems
- Combining efforts to create synergies
- Organizing annual IATUL conferences

IATUL Activities & Projects

IATUL Library Twinning Initiative

To support the international library community in creating urgently required synergies, IATUL has established the Library Twinning Initiative to encourage member libraries to form close and long term bonds of mutual cooperation and support, by joint ventures and by setting up an efficient communication infrastructure for the exchange of experience.

IATUL Special Interest Group on Library Organisation and Quality Management (SIG-LOQUM)

IATUL special interest groups provide a continuous opportunity to create new approaches to challenges in librarianship. IATUL SIG-LOQUM deals with quality management systems relevant for libraries, concepts for mutual auditing of libraries, library organisation, team-oriented processes, budgeting and fundraising.

IATUL Special Interest Group on Information Literacy (SIG IL)

The IATUL Special Interest Group for Information Literacy (SIG IL) seeks to promote collaboration and sharing best practice among IATUL members interested in Information Literacy

Get Involved & Join IATUL

IATUL membership is institutional with a senior library manager nominated as contact for the institution. All library staff of the member institution are entitled to membership discount on conference registration. There are four categories of membership:

Ordinary Membership

Available to libraries or information services whose institutions offer masters or doctoral degrees in engineering, science or technology

Associate Membership

Available, subject to confirmation by the Board, to libraries or information services interested in supporting the aims and objectives of IATUL

Sustaining Membership

Available, subject to confirmation by the Board, to commercial organisations interested in supporting the aims and objectives of IATUL

Honorary Membership

Which the Board may confer upon individuals who have served the Association, or international librarianship, with particular distinction
